THE CITY.

Index to New Advertisements.

(See top first column this page.)
W. M. SANDERS.—Local notice

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Mr. William Biggs, editor of the Oxford Free Lance, is in the city.

——The hop of the Monogram Club will be held at the National to-morrow evening instead of this evening.

——The foot bridges on Wilmington street, between Martin and Cabarrus, have been taken away.

——A drummer's license was issued from the State Treasury to Shuedeker & Boynton, New York.

——Receipts at the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue yesterday were $1,371.75.

——Rev. Dr. L. S. Burkhead, of the Methodist Conference, is in the city on a visit to his family who now live here, on Hillsboro Avenue.

——Special meeting of William G Hill Lodge this evening, 7:30 o'clock, for work in the second degree. Hiram Lodge and visiting members are invited to attend.

——The cotton market was steady yesterday, and the demand fair. Receipts were light, the badness of the roads preventing out sides from getting into the city.

——The State Treasurer yesterday issued a license to P. Z. Ill & Son, of Baltimore Md., for the sale of their "Cotton Acid Fertuzer," in this State, they paying $500 for this privilege.

——Yesterday's soft skies and balmy air came as a blessing to those upon whom dark skies had lowered, for all thought how soon the sun would do what the Street Commissioner won't or can't, put the streets in passable order.

——Rutherford county yesterday drew four hundred dollars from the State Treasury, on account of allowance for maintenance of outside lunatics. She draws more than any other county in the State, the total being some seventeen hundred dollars.

——Three of the colored companies in this city will unite to-day in celebrating the first anniversary of the Bas. Raleigh Guards. In the morning there will be a target shoot for a prize, at the old rock quarry; at 3 o'clock in the afternoon a street parade and dress parade on Hillsboro avenue, and in the evening a reception at Metropolitan Hall.

——The question of payment by the State of the $400 allowance to each lunatic outside the Asylum come up in the House yesterday, and provoked a very lively discussion. The allowance was finally reduced to $50. The statements made showed that the present plan was costing some $50,000 this year. A project to cut off the entire allowance met with but slight favor.

——Letters not prepaid by stamps are held at the office, addressed to Prof. R. P. Troy, Goldsboro; H. B. Peters, Greensboro; Silas Taylor, Enfield; and an enigmatical one to Mr. Grayus, Selma Post Office, Raleigh, N. C. This last is rather a puzzle. The good people will be careless about their letters, as one party at one time put in three, not one of which was stamped.

A BLOCKADER.—U. S. Commissioner Purnell yesterday had before him one Wiley A Warren, white, of this county, charged with buying and having in his possession blockade whiskey. Harry McGee, colored, the principal witness for the Government, having fled to Tennessee, it is said, the case languished, and resulted in the discharge of Warren.

QUIET ALL ROUND.—The police seemed somewhat doleful yesterday, and as soon as the reporter looked at one he saw that business was dull, or in other words the bad people were giving the good citizens a rest. Such is the fact, and there were no arrests during the day, but a few parties for trivial offences were before the Mayor, given small doses of justice and suffered to depart in peace.

CONVICTS.—The authorities at the State Penitentiary yesterday had committed to their charge seven convicts. Of these six were from Edgecombe county, brought up by Sheriff Battle Bryan, and the seventh was contributed by Sheriff N. R Jones, of Warren. A bill has been introduced in the Legislature to farm out convicts to anybody who will pay for them, in gangs, and has some advocates. Others desire that the present idea be carried out, that is of keeping them on State work.

PERSONALS.—Cyrus P. Mendenhall and Julius A. Gray, Esq., of Greensboro, are in the city.

Col. L. C. Jones, President of the W. R. R. of N. C., and Messrs. A. A. McKethan and W. E. Kyle, all of Fayetteville, are registered at the Yarboro.

Col. Pat Donan, as well known here, has gotten into a difficulty out west, say the papers, and was compelled to crawfish, or in more elegant parlance, back out in quick time.

Mr. W. E. Weaver, one of the cleverest and most energetic salesmen that visits this State, is in the city, for the Messrs. G. W. Green & Son, one of the largest importers and wholesale dealers in liquors in Baltimore.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The most charming entertainment of the season will be given by the Young Ladies of St. Mary's School on Saturday evening next for the benefit of the Hospital of St. John's Guild.

The programme will consist of the cantata of "Red Riding Hood," with the famous "Ruider Symphony," of Haden, as an overture.

The cause is a worthy one, and the entertainment will be of the most delightful character. The tickets, only a limited number of which will be sold, can be had at the book store of A. Williams & Co. Price of admission 50 cents.

THE NEW SECRETARY OF STATE.—Col. William L. Saunders, whose appointment by the Governor to the position of Secretary of State was noted in yesterday's issue, was formally invested with the dignity, privileges and authority of the office yesterday. At noon he appeared in the room of the Private Secretary to His Excellency, and there took the oaths of office, which were administered by Associate Justice Thomas S. Ashe, of the State Supreme Court. This ceremony concluded he was escorted to his office by Dr. J. M. Worth, State Treasurer, and Lee S. Overman, Esq., Private Secretary. Nearly all the State officers and a number of gentlemen of this city were present.

The appointment of so talented and universally popular a gentlemen as the new Secretary is received on all hands with pleasure, and he goes into his office with the hearty good wishes of the people everywhere. It is but seldom that appointments are as perfectly satisfactory.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock yesterday, His Honor, Judge Mills L. Eure, presiding.

The following business was transacted:

Watson L. Daniel vs. Thomas E. Skinner; defendant pleads his discharge in bankruptcy.

A. M. Lewis vs. Hugh Blalock; referred to Geo. V. Strong, by consent.

L. L. Fobes & Co. vs. L. Branson; judgment for plaintiff, appeal by defendant to Supreme Court.

Amelia A. Parish et als. vs. Bythan Stevenson and J. C. Parish, plaintiff submits to a non suit, and appeals to the Supreme Court.

William Grimes vs J. B. Batchelor et als.; R. W. Wharton, adm'r. made party defendant.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock on yesterday. Present, Chief Justice Smith and Associate Justices Ashe and Dillard.

Call of appeals from the 2nd District was resumed.

C. V. Swann et al. vs L. Barrington's administrator, from Craven; continued.

Isaac H. Smith vs A. and M. Hahn, from Craven; argued. Battle & Mordecai for the plaintiff, and M. D. W. Stevenson and Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe for the defendant.

State vs Frederick Reel, from Craven; argued. Attorney General Kenan for the State, and Green & Stevenson for the defendant.

State vs Robert Jones, from Edgecombe; left open.

G. Ober & Sons vs W. H. Smith, from Halifax; continued.

J. E. O'Hara vs W. H Powell et al., from Edgecombe; argued. Gilliam & Gatling, George Howard, Fred. Phillips and Green & Stevenson for the plaintiff, and Battle & Mordecai and D. G. Fowle for the defendant.

Elizabeth G Haywood, executrix, vs E. B. Haywood, executor, et al, from Wake; argued. Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe, J. B. Batchelor, A. W. Tourgee and E. G. Haywood for plaintiff and D. G. Fowle, Battle & Mordecai, Reade, Busbee & Busbee, Gilliam & Gatling and A. W. Haywood for defendants.

Pending the argument in this case, Court adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

A CARD.

To the People of North Carolina

In the published proceedings of the House of Representatives of the 18th inst., I find the following:

WHEREAS, The Department of Agriculture was instituted for the benefit of farmers and the farming interests of the State; and whereas, it appears from the disbursement of the funds belonging to that Department that it is not in the interest of the farmers, but to the sole interest of place; now, therefore, the House of Representatives do

Resolve, That 500 copies of the disbursement account of the Department of Agriculture (which is here appended) be printed for the information of the members, and to show to the people of the State how the farming interest is imposed upon under a false name.

Mr. Mebane spoke briefly in favor of his resolution.

Mr. Vaughan moved to strike out the preamble, which was done.

Mr. Turner moved that 1,000 copies be printed instead of 500, and it was so ordered and then the resolution was adopted.

The above will be read with surprise by thousands throughout the State, especially since it is promulgated as an advertisement by the high authority of the House of Representatives, composed largely of farmers. I simply ask the fair-minded people of the State to withhold judgment on the assertion thus heralded, "that the farming interest is imposed upon under a false name" by this Department, until the full matter is fairly stated. The strong endorsement and high commendation of Gov. Vance, of the Department, in his recent message to the Legislature—the earnest and patriotic appeal in its behalf by our present worthy Executive in his recent inaugural—the unprecedented and enthusiastic support manifested by the people of the State and by the press, is not all meaningless affectation. And that sense of justice which has always characterized our people, will sustain me in the demand that this Department be fully and thoroughly investigated. It was established by the people, for the people, and for their information at least, it would seem that my sworn statement in the hands of the Committee might have accompanied the publication of the "expense account." I am assured by a number of gentlemen of that body that the above resolution does not express the sentiment of a large majority. This card is published on my own responsibility, on behalf of the Board, whose members are in various parts of the State.

L. L. POLK,
Commissioner of Agriculture.

OUR LAW MAKERS.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb 19 5.

The Senate was called to order at 10 a. m. President Robinson in the chair.

Mr. White, from the joint committee on the Asylum for the Insane, presented the majority report.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The unfinished business of the morning hour yesterday was resumed—it being Senate bill to incorporate the Pungo and Alligator River Canal Company, the question being on its second reading.

Mr. Shackelford moved to amend by giving the proposed company a pro rata share of convict labor. Adopted. and the bill then passed second and third readings, and was ordered to be engrossed.

On motion of Mr. McEachern, the vote by which the bill for the creation of the new county of Scotland was postponed till Wednesday next was reconsidered, and the bill put on its passage.

SALARIES AND FEES BILL.

The discussion of the pending question was interrupted by the announcement of the special order for 11 o'clock, the bill to regulate salaries and fees.

On motion of Mr. Graham, of Lincoln, the bill was again considered by sections, the question being on the third reading of the bill.

Sec. 1. Governor $3,000, with a Private Secretary at $300 and fees per annum.

Mr. Graham moved to strike out $300 and insert $500. This would make the salary of the Private Secretary about $800, which he considered low enough.

Mr. Erwin objected. The salary as it now stood in the bill was the same as in 1860.

Mr. Scales favored the amendment.

Mr. Henderson concurred with Mr. Scales.

Mr Graham's amendment was adopted by a vote of 25 to 19.

Mr. Dortch moved to make the salary of the Governo $3,500.

Mr. Caldwell opposed the amendment.

Mr. Hoyle also objected to Mr. Dortch's amendment, as did Mr. Austin, both Senators adopting the views of Mr. Caldwell.

Mr, Dortch's amendment was rejected; yeas 9 nays 34

The first section was then agreed to as amended.

Sec. 2. Treasurer $3 000. Chief Clerk $1,500, Assistant Clerk $750. The Treasurer to be ex-officio treasurer for the Asylum for the Insane, the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, the Agricultural Department and the Penitentiary.

Mr. White moved to make the Assistant Clerks salary $400 instead of $750. Rejected.

The second section was agreed to.

Sec. 5. Justices of the Supreme Court $2 500 per annum.

Mr. Alexander moved to strike out $2,000 and insert $3,000

Mr. Dortch called for a division of the question, and the Senate refused to strik out by a vote of 40 to 3

The third section was then agreed to.

Sec 4. Judges of the Superior Court two thousand dollars per annum in full of all judicial duties, and ninety dollars per week for special courts.

Mr. Everett moved to strike out two thousand dollars and inset two thousand five hundred dollars.

Mr. Davidson offered a substitute for the entire section as proposed to be amended by Mr. Everett, giving $— per annum to the Judges, with no pay for extra courts, and requiring the Governor to divide the extra labor imposed upon the Judges as equally as possible.

Mr. Davidson's substitute was adopted and section four was then agreed to

Sec. 5. This section provides the machinery for section 4 in regard to the mode of payment of the judges.

Mr. Graham moved to amend by providing for the payment of Judges where as in cases of sickness, they are unable to procure the certificate of the Clerk of the Court. Adopted, and section five was agreed to.

Sec. 6. Salary $1,000 and fees not exceeding $1,000, and no clerk.

Mr Davidson moved to amend by making the Secretary's salary $2,000, with no fees, and giving him a clerk at a salary not exceeding $1,200.

Mr. Graham, of Lincoln, opposed the amendment.

Mr. Dortch moved for a division of the question, the vote was taken on a motion to strike out, when it was lost.

The sixth section was then agreed to without amendment.

Sec. 7. Auditor $1,500 and no clerk.

Mr. Hoyle moved to strike out $1,500 and insert $1,750.

Mr. Ormand called for a division of the question and the Senate agreed to strike out—ayes 26, noes 17.

The question now was on the section as amended by Mr. Henderson.

Mr. Ormand moved to strike out $500 for clerk hire and insert $250. Rejected—ayes 14, noes 28.

Mr. Henderson's amendment was then adopted as section seven

Sec. 9 Attorney General $500 and fees allowed by law, and $1,000 as Attorney General.

Mr. Hoyle moved that the salary of the Attorney General be put at $1,000 without fees, and $1,000 as Supreme Court Reporter. Adopted by 22 to 14, and section nine was agreed to as amended

Sec. 10. Adjutant General $300 per annum and no mileage or clerical assistance.

The section was then adopted.

Sec. 11. Provides that all annual salaries shall be paid quarterly and clerks monthly. Adopted.

Secs. 12 and 13 Solicitors $20 for each court attended and the usual fees. Adopted.

Sec. 14. Keeper of Capitol to act also as Librarian, $800 per annum.

Mr. Merritt moved to amend by retaining the Librarian at a salary of $400, and giving the Keeper of the Capitol $600.

On a division of the question the Senate agreed to strike out and insert the amendment of Mr. Merritt.

The fourteenth section, as amended was then agreed to.

Sec. 15. Watchman and servant hire for capitol square $600, with a provision that none of this sum shall be used for servants in the capitol, except in the Supreme court room Agreed to.

Sec. 15. Repealing clause.

Mr. Graham, of Lincoln, offered the following as a substitute for the 16th section:

"All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed; and all laws or clauses of laws allowing clerks, or compensation therefor, in the office of the governor, treasurer, auditor, and secretary of State; the Penitentiary, Insane Asylum, Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and Blind, or the Agricultural Department, except as herein provided for, are hereby repealed." Adopted.

Sec. 17. The ratifying clause was then adopted.

The bill then passed its third reading as amended, unanimously, and was ordered to be engrossed.

Under a suspension of the rules Mr. Williamson called up his bill to define the duties of the sheriffs acting as county treasurers.

Mr. Mebane moved to amend by allowing such sheriff one per cent. on such additional moneys as they may have to handle.

Mr. Mebane's amendment was rejected and the bill then passed its several readings and was ordered to be engrossed.

On motion the Senate adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 19th, 1879.

The Speaker called the House to order, and Rev. J. S. Watkins, of the First Presbyterian church, prayed.

PETITIONS

were presented by Messrs. Mebane, Ewing, Bingham, Covington, Angier, Paxton, Reynolds, Johnson, Ellison, Horton, Davis, of Madison.

REPORTS

were submitted by Messrs. Yorke, Atkinson, Colwell, English; Richardson, of Columbus, Bernard, Carter, of Buncombe, Rawley, Davis, of Catawba, Huffstetler, Brown, of Mecklenburg, Blocker, Leatherwood, Rawley.

RESOLUTIONS

were introduced by Messrs. York, Covington, Turner.

BILLS

were introduced by Messrs. Leatherwood, York, Bernard, Henderson, Clarke, Foy, Bingham, Colwell, Angier Lockhart, English, Lutterloh, Paxton, Carter, of Yancey, Amis, Mebane, Cooke, Council and Ewing.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

was granted Mr. McLean, on account of illness.

CALENDAR.

Bill to regulate the hauling of seines in Roanoke and Tar rivers, was tabled, another bill covering the ground.

Bill to entitle first grade teachers of public schools to two dollars per day; second grade one dollar and a half per day, third grade one dollar, was tabled, for the same reason.

OUTSIDE LUNATICS.

Bill to repeal the law providing for the maintenance of lunatics outside the Asylum. The majority of the committe recommend that $50 instead of one hundred dollars, as at present.

Mr. Mabane sent in an amendment to strike out fifty and say five dollars. He said the State was at a frightful expense for this cause. Lunatics were now allowed one hundred dollars, and in many cases the money was drawn, while the lunatics were at work daily. Mr. Clarke thought the allowance of fifty dollars was proper. Mr. Mebane said twenty dollars of the one hundred was used in getting that sum for the lunatic. It was an imposition upon the poor man. Mr. York gave hearty concurrence to Mr. Mebanes amendment, while Mr. Lewis opposed it, favoring the view of the committee, deeming it a proper allowance and sufficiently guarded, the sum being a small compensation. Mr. Foard took a like view. Besides those who are to be so provided for have to be carefully examined, and this will doubtless reduce the number one-half.

Mr. Jones offered an amendment that the act shall not affect those cases where the allowance is now being made. Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, favored the original bill, introduced by him, repealing the whole law. The entire idea of providing for these outside insane was not contemplated by the constitution. It is merely a construction of the law. The State is doing her utmost to provide for these unfortunate in her asylums, but she should not, can not, take care of those outside. Too much of the allowance now goes to manipulators. These insane should be cared for by the counties.

Mr. Cook said the law in regard to this support was mandatory, and argued in favor of the majority report of the committee. The sums allowed the insane have in most cases been properly and honestly expended.

Mr. Carter, replying, said the Legislature was allowed some option in this matter. The State is now doing all she can, by building asylums for her insane. The Assembly has a right to construe the law, and she will in her asylums be able to give them better accommodations. A law should be passed putting curable cases in one asylum, and incurables in another.

After scattering fire of remarks from various members, the previous question was called by Mr. Cooke, and ordered, when a shower of amendments was sent in.

The amendment of Mr. Mebane to reduce to $5 was first acted on, upon a call for the ayes and nayes, and was lost, by 87 to 19.

The vote was then taken upon the substitute of the committee, allowing $50 instead of $100, and this was adopted.

An amendment of Mr. York that no person adjudged to be a lunatic shall be included, was accepted.

An amendment that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect claims since March, 1876 was accepted.

An amendment that the Solicitor shall examine in cases of inquisitions, to receive no compensation, was adopted.

The bill, as amended, then passed its second reading.

Being put upon its third, an amendment was sent in providing that only the indigent be entitled to the provisions. This, Mr. Carter, its introducer, spoke to, saying that the State should only see care to those unable to take care of themselves.

Mr. Clarke favored this view.

Mr. Jones opposed it, believing such exceptions unconstitutional. While Messrs. Vaughan and Taylor did not like the discrimination, which would make the law vulgar.

Mr. Carter spoke of the provision as being entirely constitutional, and said these matters, apparently mandatory, are addressed to the good judgment of the General Assembly. His amendment was then lost.

An amendment by Mr. Lindsay, to strike out $50 and insert $25, was lost.

The vote then recurred on the passage of the bill on its final reading, when it passed.

A message came over from the Senate transmitting the report of the Joint Committee to examine into the management of the Western Insane Asylum and W. N. C. R. R., with proposition to print. This the House concurred in.

DEAF MUTES, BLIND AND INSANE.

Special order, the bill in relation to the support of the blind, deaf mutes and insane, changing the word "shall" to "may." The vote by which it failed to pass its second reading some days ago, was reconsidered and the bill put upon that reading, which it passed by a vote of ayes 84, nays 25. This is the bill which some days past provoked such a discussion, and whose merits were so fully considered.

Bill to allow the County Commissioners of Craven to work convicts sentenced for one years' imprisonment, to work on the public works of that county, passed its readings.

At 2 p. m. the House adjourned.

NIGHT SESION.

Bill to incorporate Brevard Station, passed second reading.

Mr. Lockhart by consent submitted a report from the Committee on Corporations.

Bill to amend the law in relation to the laying out of Public Roads. This bill provides for the laying out of roads by three commissioners and applies only to the counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Rutherford and Watauga. It passed.

Bill to define the criminal jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace. This bill is effective only by reference to already established law, and to give a definite idea of its scope would require a publication of almost the whole of the criminal law.

On this bill the House went into committee of the whole with Mr. Vaughan in the chair.

In the committee of the whole the bill was fully discussed by Messrs. Carter, of Buncombe, Blocker and Normentin favor of the bill, and by Messrs. Motley, Cooke and Taylor in opposition thereto.

Mr. Taylor moved to amend the title of the bill so that it will read:

"An act to remove the terrors and restraints of the law to encourage crimes and misdemeanors and to bulldoze and bring the Justices of the Peace into contempt.

The Committee of the whole rose and reported progress, and the House resumed the consideration of the bill.

Messrs Mebane, Carter, of Buncombe, Atkinson, Normont, and Bernard in favor of the bill, and Messrs. Lockhart, Ellison, and Blaisdell against it. Sundry amendments offered by the committee were adopted. The House then voted down all other amendments and passed the bill.

It is impossible to do more than indicate the positions taken by gentlemen discussing this bill, for the reason that the arguments are based on parts of pre-existing law, and because the confusion in the Hall was such as to render it impossible to catch the points made. This confusion was so great that at one time Mr. Reid, of Mason, moved that the lobbies be cleared.

Mr. Atkinson arose to a question of personal privilege, and stated that the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform in making its report this morning desire to disclaim any reference whatever to Mr. Stamps, the recently appointed Director of the Penitentiary.

Chinese Immigration Question.

Savannah News.

Senator Sargent, in his speech in favor of the bill restricting Chinese immigration, made one statement of importance. He said the Chinese Embassy at Washington had declined to discuss the question of a modification of the treaty. The reasons for declension are not given. If the action of the Embassy indicates a settled purpose on the part of the Chinese Government to insist upon the execution of the treaty as it stands, it puts an end to diplomatic discussion. If the Embassy declines because it is not authorized to deal with the matter at Washington, its refusal is not so grave an affair.

This Chinese immigration question bids fair to be a troublesome one. It seems to have been pretty generally determined that the "man and brother principle is to be extended to the "heathen Chinee," and yet while the Burlingame treaty stands, this Government cannot; without violating good faith, pass any law prohibiting Chinese immigration to this country.

This fact, however, would not be permitted to stand in the way of prohibitory legislation demanded by the popular clamor clamor it if was not for the further fact that a violation of the treaty would provoke retaliation on the part of the Chinese Government seriously damaging to American interest in China, where large parties of American capitalists are engaged in lucrative commerce under the protection of Chinese laws guaranteeing to them the rights of trade and domicile in that country. The abrogation of the Burlingame treaty would at once break off American trade in China, and transfer to England a large commerce now enjoyed by Americans.

Congressional Deadheadism.

Washington Letter in Brooklyn Argus

"I cannot save any of my salary," said Senator Lamar to your correspondent to-day. "Is it impossible. I never paid a cent beyond livery hire and a few little kindred items of election expense in my life, and I have been in politics a long time. I could save a thousand dollars a year if I would do certain things, but I do not think my conscience would be satisfied if I did. For instance I pay about three hundred dollars a year for newspapers. I like to read them. I have passes over railroads. I could travel all over the United States free. But I pay my fare. It cost me $57 apiece for my family every time I come and go between here and home. I have telegraph passes. I never use them. I do not think it would be right. I can send anything I please over the express lines, yet I pay my express bills. I spend my salary and never have any money. Some Senators use all these privileges of deadheading, and they say it is right. I think otherwise. But there is one thing I think should be done, and I shall propose it as soon as I get a chance. Every Senator should have a private secretary. He answers correspondence, committee work, etc., than he can do. And each Senator should be allowed a private secretary. The Senator gets five thousand dollars a year, and he cannot support his family in keeping with his position and employ a private secretary on that sum." The conscience of this Senator should be embalmed.

The biggest thing out is what the druggists term Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; its sale is enormous and it has never been known to fail. Price, 25 cents.

Repudiation in the South.

Philadelphia Times.

Some of the Southern States are showing more and more disposition to smother their pride and boasted honor in resorting to almost any pitiful expediment to escape the payment of their just liabilities. Virginia, even, a courteous and generous proposition from her creditors is under consideration by the Legislature and a committee representing the bondholders, is alive with talk that means nothing less than repudiation. A convention of these repudiationists, whom it is the fashion to call readjusters, is about to be held. In Tennessee liberal propositions from creditors submitted through Gen. Pryor, have been rejected by one branch of the General Assembly, and in terms that were little short of discourteous. These States are earning bad repute in the eyes of the world, and cannot complain if they are rated according to their own appraisement of their integrity.

Washington Post.

One of Mr. Edmunds' journalistic admirers proclaims that the distinguished Senator is dealing out "ships true to the Democracy." This is a very natural mistake. It is true that Mr Edmunds is making a dead of noise, but as he is nearing the end of his voyage it is necessary that he should blow off steam preparatory to tying up to the minority dock for a long rest. As in the case of steamships, under similar circumstances, the blowing off is apt to astonish country people and scare children, but there is no "destruction" in it.

The Moral of a Dog.

N. Y. Star.

The man is a fool who shoots a dog merely because it has bitten somebody. A fine shepherd dog that had fastened its teeth in a Georgia farmer's leg was made the recipient of a charge of buckshot and supposed to have been killed by a neighbor, who imagined he was doing the wounded man a service. The latter died of fright, but the animal recovered, and upon examination proved to be in a perfectly healthy condition. Had the farmer been satisfied that the dog was not rapid, his life might have been saved.

Helping the Innocents.

Boston Herald.

The next time Mr. Tilden has a chance to buy the presidency, the Philadelphia Times thinks he'll do it, because he must have found out by this time that the innocent are those who succeed. Besides, it may be worth something to be in a position to reward a diplomatic thief with foreign consulate. That also might help to establish the innocence of all parties concerned.

How About the Noble Youth?

Baltimore Gazette.

The Columbus (O.) Journal observes that "not all great men were addicted to destroying valuable historic data, like Weed, Marble and Pelton, where could future historians turn for raw material?" But the noble youth who fired the republican ciphers and outlives in history the profane scoundrels who wrote them—how about him.

Time to Take His Bearings.

Washington Post.

When a democratic statesman finds himself the subject of special and emphatic laudation in the republican press, it is time for him to call a halt long enough to see what direction his toes are pointing. Genuine democracy is very unlikely to win republican applause.

Left For Cape Good Hope.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Third Battalion, 60th Rifles, left Colchester this morning for Cape Good Hope. The streets were decorated with flags, evergreens and mottos. The corporation presented an address to the troops, wherein hope was expressed that they would recover the colors of the 24th Regiment. Col. Pemperton replied. The troops marched to the railway station accompanied by four regimental bands.

Democratic Gains in New York.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Feb. 19.—The election of supervisors for Jefferson county yesterday, resulted in the election of 14 Republicans and 13 Democrats. A Democratic gain of two.

Municipal Elections in Pennsylvania.

HARRISONBURG, PA., Feb. 19.—Mayor Patterson (republican) was re-elected yesterday by over 300 majority, and Treasurer Shelsby about 500. Controllership undecided. The Democrats elected both branches of the councils.

Retrenchment.

Charlotte Observer.

Retrenchment is the demand of the day. The secular and religious papers are full of it. Demands are made upon Legislatures that they must not adjourn until they have established a decided reputation as Reformers. This is as it should be. Economy and honesty should be the leading characteristics of every financial department of the Church and State and family.

Hayes in 1861.

N. Y. Star.

In 1861 Mr. Hayes thought, with John Van Buren, that the "erring sisters" might be permitted to go in peace. In the course of a private letter he wrote: "We cannot recover them. The Free States alone, if we must go alone, will make a glorious nation. I do not feel gloomy when I look forward." At this time when these sentiments were expressed they would have been regarded as treasonable by the party that stole the Presidency for Mr. Hayes. Had they been published prior to the election of 1876 the majorities against him at the North would have spared the country the disgrace of the grand larceny perpetrated by Mad Wells and John Sherman in Louisiana.

Lion Hearted Defenders.

Charlotte Observer.

The Monroe Enquirer says it has "been wearied and bored to death by the asinine roaring of the ranting politician playing the role of the lion-hearted defender of the people's rights." The Monroe Enquirer will please extend our hand up in this direction. Shake.

JOHN B. HUSSEY, - Editor.

The Insurance Bill Again.

It is perhaps not very high ground upon which to base one of our objections to the proposed Insurance Bill, when we say, we do so object, because the inevitable consequence of the passage of this bill, will be to reduce the revenue of the State some twenty thousand dollars. The policy of Insurance used in North Carolina is precisely the same used in every other State in the Union. It is not to be supposed that Companies having agencies in this State, will furnish our people a contract more favorable in its terms than that made with citizens of other States, especially in view of the fact, that the amount of insurance in this State, is small and has not in the past proven generally profitable to the Companies.

It will surprise many of our law makers, to learn, as they can by examination of the records of the Secretary of State, that many of the Insurance Companies have paid out very much more money, in North Carolina for losses incurred, than they have received in premiums. Hence it is very certain, should this bill pass—which offers a premium for incendiarism—all the strong, reliable companies will withdraw their agencies from North Carolina.

But prudent men will insure and continue to insure in the strongest companies. The result of the passage of this bill will be, that property-owners wanting the protection of the strong New York, Hartford and English Companies will obtain them direct from the Home offices. In this case, it will not be pretended that the pending legislation could affect the contract wholly made in another State.

What would be the result? Simply that insurance would be done here precisely as it is now done all over the world, viz, by the issuance of "contracts of indemnity" for actual loss at time of fire by policies issued in New York and without the intervention of local agents, and the State's revenues will be thus diminished just twenty thousand dollars.

We respectfully warn the prudent men of this legislature to think well before they act on this important measure.

But there is another view of this subject well worthy of consideration, which being in the nature of a legal argument, is submitted with diffidence to those Legislators, who are also lawyers. We are aware that the lawyers in both Houses are few, as we believe it is the proud boast of the present Legislature, that they will demonstrate that a knowledge of law is unnecessary in making law. The old fashioned notions on this subject were all wrong. Hence our present Legislature is happy in having but few lawyers.

But to the argument: We maintain, should the proposed bill pass, it would be inoperative in its application to "other State" companies, because the policy of Insurance, issued by such, is a contract made by a citizen of another State, (that is by a company corporated in another State) and hence that the "six lace contractors" of the State, where the contract is made, would obtain and control the construction of the contract. That the contract is made in another State is shown in this: That every policy is signed by the President and Secretary of the contracting company, and is only valid when so signed; that the conditions of the policy-contract are all made and printed, and signed by the officers of the company before sent to the local agent; that the authority of the latter extends only to filling in the proper blanks with the name of the party here who accepts the contract (called the insured,) and describing the property; and that such agent does not in fact make the contract, nor have any authority to alter or change any of its terms. On the contrary he is expressly inhibited from so doing.

That this view is correct, and that the companies of other States cannot be ultimately bound by the decisions of our State Courts, has been repeatedly decided. In case of a suit-at-law between the insured and an insurance company corporated in another State, either party has the right to take the case before the United States Court for decision—a rights not accorded to citizens of the same State.

If then it be conceded that the company making the contract is a citizen of another State, a law made by this State invalidating or changing a contract made by or with a citizen of another State, would be clearly imperative and void. Now the contract of insurance made at the Home office of the company as we have shown, is to pay the "actual cash value of the property at the time of the loss" by fire, and no law of North Carolina could compel a company, resident in another State, to pay $10 000 for a building insured for $10,000 if the "actual cash value of the property at the time of the loss by fire" is ascertained to be only $5,000.

It does seem to me that this is true beyond question.

This urged by the advocates of the bill, that it may be relieved of its chief objection, if the local insurance agents will have every building appraised by competent experts, before issuing a policy on it. If this were done, the expense of such appraisals would far exceed the premium cost, and thus render insurance a most expensive luxury.

But even if this were done, values are liable to change between the dates when the insurance is effected and the destruction of the property by fire, alike from shrinkage in prime cost of materials used in construction and cost of labor; and also as the result of deterioration on account of increased age.

Property in 1874 was depreciated in value as compared with its cost in 1873 at least twenty-five per cent.

Should the insurance company be asked to make good this depreciation to the man who was so fortunate as to have his property burned in 1874?

Medical School at the University.

The Trustees of the University, ever on the look out to meet the educational wants of the people, have added the Medical School to the other departments of which Dr. Thomas Harris is chief, as Professor of Anatomy, Chemistry, Physiology, Botany, will be taught by Professor Redd and Simonds.

Dr. Harris has had uncommon advantages for becoming proficient in his department, having graduated at the University in 1858 in a class of about 100, obtained his diploma at the University of New York and then devoted himself especially to Anatomy and Surgery at the far-famed "Ecole de Medecine," at Paris. He did much hospital work in this latter city under Velpeau. He is an enthusiastic lecturer and demonstrator in Anatomy, keeps abreast with his profession by studying the great French and other publications

The instruction in the new Medical School will be by laboratory work and dissection of human subjects and study of models. Free choice will be regularly held to give practical knowledge of diseases, &c.

The object of the University Medical School is at present confined to preparing students for attending the lectures and obtaining the diplomas of the great medical colleges.

HON. W. M. ROBBINS hopes to secure an appropriation for the Yadkin river improvement in the Senate. The delay of the engineers report of the survey defeated any action in the House. Mr. Robbins expects to have the benefit of the report before the Senate Committee. The contemplated improvement the engineer will report feasible. Mr. Robbins does not sleep on the rights of his constituents.

THE salary bill just passed by the Maine Senate fixes the compensation of the Governor at $1,500, of the Supreme Court Judges at $2 000, of the Attorney General at $1,000, of the Secretary of State at $1,200, of the State Treasurer at $1,600, and of the Adjutant General at $900. The salaries of minor State officers were also reduced.

NO REFLECTION, gentlemen, North Carolina never had a stronger representation in Congress. But somehow, you know, Ransom manages to increase the appropriations for North Carolina where the River and Harbor bill gets the Senate.

THE New York Elevated Railway has been badly swindled by some of its employes, who have been carrying on a system of wholesale robbery for some time. So it seems that Hayes is not the only fraud in high position.

THE policy of subsidizing railroads has become so unpopular in the Massachusetts Legislature that a bill for the purpose rarely ever runs the gauntlet of a sub-committee.

Good Words for the South.

(Letter from Col. Julian Allen of Statesville, N. C., by request to the N. Y. Produce Exchange:) North Carolina is a State of extraordinary resources, peopled by as noble and patriotic men as can be found in the Union. There is an excellent State Government, the laws are faithfully and impartially administered and all classes are fully protected in their civil rights. There is scarcely a trace of ill feeling noticeable between the whites and the blacks. Northern men who settle there are met with warm cordiality and hospitality which has always characterized the people of the South.

I assure you that Northern men and Northern capital are equally protected with Southern men and Southern capital, and I may add that it will be difficult to find a more promising field for the employment of Northern capital and enterprise. The State is rapidly recovering from the disastrous effects of the war, and those familiar with her present condition and resources are unanimous in predicting that she is now entering upon an era of unexampled thrift and prosperity.

While residing in North Carolina, I have visited many other portions of the South, and have taken pains to study the condition, not only of the people, but of the country in that section of the Union. So far as I have been able to ascertain the facts, I believe that what I have said of the condition and disposition of the people of North Carolina applies equally well to the South generally. They are anxious for peace and the restoration of fraternal feeling with the people of the North, and are laboring zealously and patriotically to promote the welfare and protect the rights of all their citizens, regardless of past differences.

The negroes, uneducated as they are, are unquestionably too often the victims of these designing and treacherous self-constituted leaders, and are sorely in need of good heads and good hearts to guide them in the exercise of their recently acquired political rights and privileges; but I deny that the great mass of the Southern people manifest the slightest desire to deprive them of their civil rights or to oppress them in any manner. I reiterate that the laws are faithfully and impartially executed, and that life and property are to-day as safe in North Carolina as in any State in the Union, and that the government of the State is as conscientiously and intelligently administered.

I hope I shall soon see some or all of you at my house at Statesville, where you may observe the condition of our affairs for yourselves, and learn how unjust are all the clamors which are raised in the North against Southern men, which, whatever may be their purpose, can only result in postponing that return of confidence and fraternal feeling between the North and the South, so essential to the prosperity and happiness of the whole country. I have the honor to be, gentlemen, your friend and obedient servant,

JULIAN ALLEN.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Feb. 17, '79.

Correspondence of the News.

There is yet no clue to the murderers of Mr. Parker. The jury of inquest failed to find any evidence against any one. A party was arrested in Salisbury on suspicion, but he seems not to have been the man. The city offers $350 reward. Three pools of blood (or places) still remain on the street. At 2½ o'clock yesterday an immense crowd gathered to pay the last earthly sad rights to his (Parker's) memory, the services, by Dr. Smith, were of a very impressive nature, on the text—Prepare to meet thy God. He spoke of the enormity of the crime, how indignant the people, at such an outrage on our usually very quiet and safe community, an outrage, such as this county can hardly remember in its annals, and probably never.

To-day the snow has fallen in its beauty, and more hale and sleet, and a general slush will follow.

The condition of Col. J. A. Gilmer is not much improved. He has now been confined to his room some two months or more, and was not able to be at church on yesterday. he installed the Elder with Judge Dick, and S. C. Smith, to which position he was recently elected. There were also five deacons elected.

Mr. C. P. Vanstory (who has just returned from Cincinnati with horses and mules for his livery stable) is now building him a fine residence between W. S. Moore's and G. D. Bennett's.

Our market is well supplied with fine beef and pork at low prices, and butter at 15 cents, and one thousand dozen of eggs are coming in. the market closing on Saturday (with some five hundred dozen in) at 12½ cents. Two other large sales of furs were made last week here, of several thousand dozen rabbit skins and large lots of assorted.

Retrenchment and Reform.

Congressional Record.

For detecting and bringing to trial and punishment persons guilty of violating the internal revenue laws, or accessory to the same, including payments for information and detection of such violation, $100,000.

Mr. Scales. I want to say here that I am as much in favor of vindicating the law in every respect as any gentleman of the Committee on Appropriations can be. I am for stopping blockading; for bringing those publicly in order that my action here may not be misunderstood—my action is not for the purpose of screening or protecting any body who ought to be punished. Four years ago when I entered this Hall it was understood that the democratic party was about to enter upon the work of retrenchment and reform. In that year we reduced the sum appropriated for this purpose from $100,000 to $75,000, and it has remained at that sum up to the present time, but by degrees we are going backward in this regard, and we have this item now at what it was when we came here.

I do not think it is a sufficient reason for making this increased appropriation that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue assured the gentleman from Tennessee that $75,000 was not a sufficient amount and that he ought to have $100,000. So they said four years ago, and two years ago they said the same thing.

The amount was reduced and they got along. There was no deficiency so far as I know.

Mr. Foster. Yes, there was each time.

Mr. Scales. Then I think we ought to understand how the deficiency was created.

Mr. Foster. We do exactly.

Mr. Scales. I would like an explanation of it.

Mr. Blount. I do not think there was a deficiency in the strict sense of the word, but there certainly was a deficiency.

Mr. Scales. I want to know by what authority the Secretary uses $25,000, if in opposition to law.

As I said a while ago, I am not disposed to increase an appropriation until I see some evidence on the part of the Administration of a disposition toward civil-service reform, and that the money we appropriate is to be paid to men of integrity and honesty, who are qualified for their positions, and whose characters will be a guarantee that this money is expended for the purposes for which it is appropriated.

Now, one word more; I ask the attention of the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations: why is it this clause does not contain a provision imposing obligation upon the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to make a detailed statement of all his expenditures in this regard? Up to this time he was required to make a report every year of the manner in which the money was expended, and why is that provision left out now?

The New County.

Oxford Torchlight.

Gilliam county was not heard of in the late canvass in Granville. Why? Either because there is no grievance of the people to be remedied by its erection, but only schemes of personal and local advantage to be served; or else, because it was intended deliberately to take advantage of the people and get a snap judgment in the matter. In either case, how can the General Assembly entertain the proposition? Is it so desirable to have new counties that the Assembly will go on to erect them when the condition and circumstances of the people do not demand it? Or will the Assembly lend itself to the pitiful business of taking a snap judgment on a people who look to it for protection? We don't believe it.

Grant and Bayes.

Washington Post

Senator Bayard is of the opinion that Grant, if President, would be capable of carrying out a plot to seize upon the organization of the House by the arrest and partisan trial and conviction of enough of the Democratic members, but that Hayes is made of entirely different material. Behind Hayes stand such men as Logan, Chandler, Kellogg, Edmunds and Sherman, the men who stole the Presidency two years ago, and have had the courage and brazen effrontery to pension every one of their instruments upon the public. Does Mr. Bayard think that these men are not capable of such a plot?

The Right Eye of Zach. Chandler.

Philadelphia Times.

The good old times are coming back with break-neck speed, and the old experiment of reform within the party must have another trial, however it may be embarrassed by the perversity of a democratic congress. Give us back some more old commanders.

What it Costs.

Boston Post.

The republicans in congress thought to make capital against the southern members, and the result is Secretary Sherman's call for an increase of the debt by twenty-seven millions. This is the way it costs the country to support the republican concern.

DONAN'S PLIGHT.

The Great American Word-Slinger in an Unpleasant Position.

Joplin (Mo.,) Herald.

From parties just in from Neosho we get brief particulars of an adjustment of personal differences between Mr. P. Donan, of the Bentonville Advanced and L. P. Cunningham, a leading attorney of this city. The matter prove quite a sensation for that quiet village. Mr. Cunningham has been in Neosho since Tuesday on railroad business. On Tuesday night Mr. Donan came to Neosho to deliver a lecture on "Woman." Yesterday morning at the theol Cunningham called Donan to account for certain scandalous statements made about him, charged certain things as occurring while he was President of the M. C. and N. W. Railroad Company. The result of the conference was that Donan signed an important paper, of which the following is a copy:

NEOSHO, MO., Feb. 7, 1879.—I Col. P. Donan, do hereby state that I know nothing against the character of L. P. Cunningham; that all I have said or written against him I know to be false and malicious, and was induced by a feeling of ill-will on my part, because I was not included as a member of the Kansas City, Joplin and Little Rock RailroadCompany; and what I have said against him was to injure that company in constructing its railroad, and at the instance of persons interested in preventing the building of that railroad, and I hereby retract all that I have said and written against said Cunningham.

P. DONAN.

After Donan signed the above, Cunningham ordered him out of the room, and facilitated his journey down stairs with a vigorous application of his boot. With this striking tableau the war ended.

Millions Divided by Lot.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It was supposed that the division of the Bailey estate was made by lottery for the first time in this State. It appears, however, that one of the largest estates in Missouri was partitioned in 1863-'64, under the direction of Mr. Britton A. Hill, counsellor for the estate of Peter Lindell, the real estate alone being valued at about $6,000,000. There were ten heirs. The estate was accurately surveyed, numbered and platted, and each lot was appraised. The commissioners then divided the lots into ten equal shares, and each share was bound in a volume with its plats and streets and descriptive calls. On the day of the allotment, in 1864, the heirs met in the unfinished room in the second story at the southeast corner of the first Lindell hotel. The ten numbers of the shares were written on the respective shares from one to ten by the counsellor; and ten numbers were written on ten square pieces of paper and placed in a hat; the names of the ten heirs were written on ten other square pieces of paper and placed in another hat. All being ready, a crippled boy beggar, passing in Washington avenue, was called in, blindfolded under protest, and directed to draw one paper from each hat, thus designating the heir and number of the share, and to continue until the drawing of lots was completed. The boy was given ten gold half eagles.

The Last of the Seminoles.

Gainesville (Ga.) Dispatch.

John, an Indian man, was killed here on last Saturday by Henry Emery, a negro youth. John was a good-humored, harmless fellow, and for years had been spending the winter months in this county. His camp for this season is on Dr. Porter's farm, and he came in on the day of his death, leaving his squaw at camp. In a drunken dance he trod upon the toe of Henry E., who threatened to stab him if he did it again—a threat he summarily executed upon a repetition of the offence, plunging a knife into his breast several times. The poor red man refused to have his wounds attended to, started back to his camp, and was found dead next morning just out of the corporate limits, and it is said he could have been traced from where he was wounded to where he was found by the blood. The negro was jailed without benefit of bail.

Vegetine

FOR

CHILLS, SHAKES,

FEVER AND AGUE.

TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

DR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I feel very grateful for what your valuable medicine, Vegetine, has done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873, which left him with Hip-joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the "Louisville Courier-Journal," that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a younger son, fifteen years of age, who is subject to chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like the most of the medicines recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Respectfully, MRS. J. W. LLOYD.

VEGETINE.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

Dread and despair fall upon the community when a terrible epidemic, like the cholera or yellow fever, suddenly desolates our homes; yet, all the while, a more insidious, but no less fatal foe, enters thousands of households every year and carries off the flower of the family in the early flush of manly youth and budding womanhood. People call it presumption, "decline" or consumption, in most cases, the true cause is neither consumption of the lungs, which is the peculiar malady in climates like those of the British Islands and New England, but a general debility or arrest of the vital processes of nutrition. All the doctors agree that there is no remedy for this but COD LIVER OIL, but they are constantly met by the obstacle of inability of the part of the patient to swallow or retain it. This repulsion is entirely overcome by SCOTT'S EMULSION OF THE OIL, with the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA which is agreeable to the taste and an unequaled nutrient and tonic for the body nerves and brain.

NEW FIRM!

W. B. MANN & CO,

Having formed a copartnership under the above title, and taken the stand formerly occupied by B. H. Woodell, No. 4 Hargett street, we intend to carry a full line of Groceries and Provisions, as well as a complete stock of Boots and Shoes, Dry Goods, Notions, Hardware, Cutlery, &c., &c.

Buying our goods at bottom prices for cash we are determined to offer inducements to our customers, unsurpassed by any house in Raleigh.

Give us a trial and be convinced of what we say. Very respectfully,

W. B. MANN & CO.

Having sold out my entire stock of goods at the above stand to Messrs. W. B. Mann & Co., I take pleasure in recommending them to the public for a liberal share of their patronage, believing that their confidence will not be misplaced.

I shall in future devote my time to a General Commission Business, and can be found at my office in the Prairie Building on Wilmington Street.

Thanking a kind public for so liberal a patronage for five years past, I hope they will not forget me in future, and give my successors as much of their patronage as they possibly can.

Very respectfully,
jan 12 d1m B. H. WOODELL.

Slaughter of the Indians.

Among those who escaped from the late massacre was the noted Chief "Dull Knife," by far the most implacable and execrable savage that ever invaded civilized or uncivilized homes—a perfect pest to all beef eating communities. We bring at ula e the people of this State that such a splendid assortment of SHARP CUTLERY was opened last week at Law's China House at Salisbury and Charlotte.

N. B. Lots of crockery arrived too.

Unheard of Bargains!

AT THE INDEFATIGABLE ENDEAVORS TO PLEASE THE PUBLIC SO HERE GOES

The muses nine, inspire my pen,
To sing of Fayetteville street, No 10,
who tries his best to please his friends
And in his labors never ends,
Bargains he'll give you when you call
For No. 10 is all and all.
Of other houses you hear them talk;
In Fayetteville street just take a walk
And only ask for No 10,
Kept by the most ingenious of men,
And when his friends by chance drop in
Then forth he comes, Lord what a grin,
And to their wondering eyes displays
Such heaps of brackets and window shades.
His pictures are exposed to public view
And a variety of cord to suspend them too,
His looking glasses and toilet cases
Will help adorn your forms and faces;
Picture frames and mouldings too
In great variety, black, brown and blue.
His window cornices and lambrequins fine,
will make your rooms and parlor shine.
Perforated mottoes, and white holly baskets.
And every other sort of stuff,
Of which he hopes to have enough.
So now he bids you all adieu
And wishes a happy new year too.
And not forget

Wood.

Get your wood of J. D Whitaker, at his yard at the western terminus of Hargett street. The pine wood which is cured by him in his special way is equal to oak, at considerable less cost to the consumer. His oak is the very best. *

THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
Celebrated American
WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist,
DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE
will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY

in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

—:o:—

DR. C. McLANE'S
LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

LIVER
GLOBE FLOWER SYRUP.
LUNGS
BLOOD

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of all diseases that arise from poison in the blood. Not one case of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Disease, in a thousand, is cured by the use of Mercury in some form. Mercury rots the bones, and the diseases it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease can be. DR. PEMBERTON'S STILLINGIA or QUEEN'S DELIGHT is the only medicine upon which a hope of recovery from Scrofula, Syphilis and Mercurial diseases in all stages, can be reasonably founded, and that will cure Cancer.

$10,000 will be paid by the proprietors if Mercury, or any ingredient not purely vegetable and harmless can be found in it

Valuable Educational Works

Sanford's Series Analytical Arithmetics
AND
Worcester's Dictionaries

Sanford's Series comprises four books, and is based upon the analytic system:

Sanford's First Lessons in Analytical Arithmetic, 16 mo., 27 cents.

Sanford's Intermediate Analytical Arithmetic, 16 mo., 237 pp. half bound, 45 cents.

Sanford's Common School Analytical Arithmetic, 355 pp. half roan, 80 cents.

Sanford's Higher Analytical Arithmetic, 8 mo., 410 pp. half roan. Cloth sides, $1.25. The definitions are clear, and the analyses exhaustive. The work is practical, and abounds in slate exercises. The experience of a large number of the best teachers in this country is that, with Sanford in hand, pupils discover an unwonted enthusiasm in studying the science of numbers.

The Complete Series of Worcester's Dictionaries.

Quarto Dictionary. Illustrated and Unabridged. Library sheep. $10.

Octavo (Universal and Critical,) Dictionary. Library style, $4.25.

Academic Dictionary. Crown 8vo. Half roan, $1.85.

Comprehensive Dictionary, Illustrated, 12 mo. Half roan, $1.75.

School (Elementary) Dictionary. 12mo, Half roan, 81.

Primary Dictionary. Illustrated 16mo. Half roan, 60 cents.

Pocket Dictionary. Illustrated 24mo Cloth 63 cents; roan, 75 cents; tucks, gilt edges, $1.

Many special aids to students, in addition to a full pronouncing and defining vocabulary, make the above-named books, in the opinion of our most distinguished educators, the most complete as well as by far the cheapest Dictionaries of our language.

Worcester's School Dictionaries are based upon the quarto, which is preferred over all others by eminent scholars and men of letters. The series is admirably adapted to use in Schools, Academies, &c.

Liberal terms for introduction. We desire that Sanford and Worcester be examined by County Boards and principals of private schools. Correspondence solicited.

We invite attention of Teachers to Chauvenet's Mathematics, Cutter's Physiology; in a word, all our School publications. Circulars and descriptive catalogue furnished on application.

DIAMONDS
IN SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS.
ONE DOLLAR — THE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE TRADE MARK PATD DIAMONDS — ONE DOLLAR

Lefevre Ring, $1. Set of Studs, $1. [The Shah] Stud, $1. Lefevre Ear Drops, $1.

THE ONLY PERFECT FAC-SIMILE OF THE REAL DIAMOND IN THE WORLD.

Pronounced by the Academy of France that M. Lefevre has really obtained artificially the true diamond. The basis of these gems are pure crystals found in the Sierra Nevadas, from whence they are exported to the Lefevre Laboratory in Paris, France, where they are submitted to a chemical and voltaic process,

BY WHICH THEIR SURFACES ARE COVERED WITH A COATING OF PURE DIAMONDS, imparting to them all the BRILLIANCY, HARDNESS, and refractive qualities of the natural diamond, and making them as desirable for WEAR, BRILLIANCY, and BEAUTY, as the veritable gems themselves. The Ring, Studs, and Ear Drops, as displayed in this announcement, are accurate engravings of SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS, CONTAINING THE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE DIAMOND, warranted by certificate U. S. Mint assay.

ON RECEIPT OF ONE DOLLAR we will send free, by REGISTERED MAIL, to any address in America, either article as above represented. Our "Book on Diamonds," with illustrations of artistic Diamond Jewelry in solid (14 k.) gold, mailed free.

I have seen many imitations of diamonds, but never any that could equal the Lefevre Brilliant.—M. ELLROY, Stamford, Conn.
I am in receipt of a pair of the Wonderful Lefevre Ear Drops, for one dollar; to say that I am pleased with them hardly fills the bill, they are simply elegant.—ANDREW MORRIS, Hornellsville, N. Y.
The Wonderful Lefevre Diamond Ring, for one dollar, came to hand this morning. It is really elegant, giving entire satisfaction, and elicting wonder and admiration from all who see it.—W. H. REDDY, Martinsburg, W. Va.
The Lefevre Diamonds, mounted in solid gold, are truly marvelous.—S. F. AVERY & SONS, Home and Farm, Louisville, Ky.
The eminently successful experiments of M. Lefevre silences all doubt of the artificial reproduction of the true diamond.—M. DU FRENOY, the great French Scientist.
The Lefevre Diamond most effectually disturbs the slumbers of the possessors of costly gems.—Journal of Science.

☞ We guarantee the Wonderful Lefevre Diamonds for One Dollar to be mounted in Solid Gold, and will cheerfully refund the money if found unsatisfactory. Address all orders to the DAILY NEWS.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1879.

News Telegrams.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—SENATE.—The Senate passed the House bill to fix the pay a letter carriers and the Senate bill to incorporate U. S. railway mail service to mutual benefit assurance. The Senate resumed the consideration of the Post Office appropriation bill.

The Senate tosday confirmed Wm. L. McMillen to be post master at New Orleans; Algerion S. Bauger Collector of Customs at New Orleans.

When the Brazilian Mail Steamship subsidy amendment was reached, the point of order was made that it was not germane to the bill but the Senate decided it was in order and considerable discussion ensued, pending which the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House is in Committee of the whole on the Legislature appropriation bill. The point of order made last night against the amendment offered by Herbert, of Ala., repealing jurors test oath and regulating the mode of the drawing and pay of jurors, was discussed at some length, and was awarded. Chairman Blackburn, of Ky., decided that it was in order.

A question then arose upon an amendment offered by Southard repealing the sections which authorize the appointment of supervisors of election. A long and interesting debate followed. Hale, of Maine, and Garfield, both speaking for the Republican party in the House, declared they would use every parliamentary device to defeat the proposed amendment. The discussion was of an excited character and members on both sides earnestly declared their purpose to stand firm in their views either for or against the measure. The proposed amendment was pending when the House adjourned, and as the Democrats insist upon its adoption, the indications are that the bill will fail. This will necessitate an extra session.

During the debate, Wood, of New York, recited a history of the laws which were proposed to be repealed. They were but a portion of a series of laws passed in order to keep the Southern States as supplicants of the Republican party that had been intended for the South, but it was now applied to the North.

The gentleman from Maine (Frye) assumed to speak for his party, when he said that he would resist by every means in his power, the repeal of those laws. He (Wood) could not speak for his party, but he could speak for one man when he said that he did not care what became of the appropriation bills. He believed that he was a higher question than that of appropriating money. He could stay in the House as long as any gentleman. The Democratic party could resist as long as the Republican party, and he would not consent to vote for a dollar until this amendment should be engrafted on the bill.

Garfield, of Ohio, said he had not spoken on the points or order because he did not regard the question as one that was being considered deliberately. Ordinarily this was a hall of deliberation, but now they were called upon merely to register the edict of a party caucus under the rule of a person who was under orders to decide that the amendment came in under the rule. This remark caused immediate explosion of anger on the Democratic side, and there were calls to order and a demand that obnoxious sentiments be reduced to writing and read at the clerk's desk. But the chairman, (Blackburn, of Ky.,) expressed the wish that no point of order should be made, but that he (Blackburn) should be permitted to respond, and that wish was acceded to. Garfield proceeded with his speech, exhibiting in its delivery much feeling and determination. He said: "The Chair will perceive I understand that I meant no reflection on him personally. (Decisive laughter on the Democratic side.) What I mean to say is that where a party caucus resolves against the will of its own majority, that its whole party must act as one man here without regard to its opponents, within its own party, then it ceases to be free deliberation, and it becomes dictation from the outside, and no deliberation of statesmen.

Mr. Blackburn having left the chair, came on the floor, and reading the objectionable extracts from Garfield's speech, asked the latter if he still stood by that?

Garfield replied that the extract did not show his full meaning. That all he said or meant to say, was that the Democratic side of the House (including the Chairman) was acting under the moral duresse of caucus dictation, and that in saying so he meant nothing personal.

Blackburn then said that he accepted the explanation freely and ungrudgingly. He denied, however, that he was acting under any instructions from the caucus, and stated that he had never seen or heard read the amendments until they were presented in committee, and that no member was bound by the action of the caucus. There was a good deal of excitement throughout the discussion and Blackburn was frequently applauded on the Democratic side, as Garfield had been on the Republican side. Before the actual openings of the filibustering proceedings, (which appear now to be inevitable) the committee rose without action and on the amendment, and the House adjourned.

A False Report.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 19.—Reports having been recently published of the existence of yellow fever in New Orleans, a statement is made that such reports are untrue as there is no cases or deaths from yellow fever having occurred here during this year. A statement is signed by many prominent citizens and officials including Dr. Samuel Chapin, President of the board of health, Gov. Nicholls, Mayor Patton and Berry Nugent, President of the Cotton Exchange.

Railroad Sold.

WILMINGTON, DEL., Feb. 19.—A special to the Every Evening, says the Eastern Shore Railroad was sold this morning at Princess Anne, Md., to the first mortgage bond-holders for five dollars, subject to a lien of four hundred thousand dollars. The sale was in pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court of Maryland issued January 2d.

Readers of the New York Tribune have to go elsewhere for the news these days. "The greatest American newspaper" is entirely absorbed with the Tilden rattle.

A New English Notion.

From Olive Logan's Last Letter.

The co-operative system of trading has extended in London to dress for ladies and children. A co-operative company has leased Dion Boucicault's mansion on Regent street for twenty years, and is fitting up its twenty rooms as a store, every room being the headquarters of a different department. The capital is $1,000,000, obtained by the issue of $40,000 shares at $25 a share, these shares to bear 6 per cent. interest. Only shareholders can trade, and certainly, if no more than one-tenth of them are ladies and frequent the rooms often, the premises will be none too large. They promise to give the newest fashions and to employ first-class dress-makers, and to have a fixed low price for making and to charge not one penny in advance in the material used.

To the Readers of this Paper.

Most of you are familiar with our "Bible Propositions" which have been published in this paper for over two months. We are glad to know, that several hundred of you have already availed yourselves of its benefits, and realized, to some extent, the wonderful virtues of the "Seven Springs Mass." Being induced to try it on account of the fairness of the proposition. We fully expected some few would demand the "Prize." Thus far not one has put in a claim. On the contrary, we have been the recipients of "Bibles," and other tokens of appreciation expressive of gratitude and acknowledgments for having called their attention to the remedy.

Our object for making that offer, was not merely to relieve headaches, for that which many regard as a case of headache, is in reality only a symptom of more serious and complicated diseases, it was therefore, more to reach these complaints, (the names of which we dislike to publish in news papers) Knowing if the Mass was properly used for headache, the patient would discover its great value for other diseases, and we are glad to say, the plan has succeeded well, as evidenced from hundreds of correspondents, and the rapidly increasing demand for the Mass—and is being sold by all Druggists.

GILES' LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA

Cures Neuralgia, Face Ache, Rheumatism, Gout, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Sore Throat, Erespyelas, Bruises and Wounds of every nature in man or animal. The remarkable cures this remedy has effected classes it as one of the most important and valuable remedies ever discovered for the cure and relief of pain.

Peter McAllister, of Jamaica, L. I., suffered for years with a sore throat, which clergymen and speakers are subject to. He obtained immediate relief from Giles' Liniment Iodide of Ammonia.

Tons of Grapes and their Use.

It is astonishing to see the large quantity of grapes of the finest quality, and large clusters, that are each year mashed up for Wine, at the Vineyard of A. Speer, Passaic N. J. Mr. Speer purchases large quantities of grapes, and also raises the Oporto grape from which he makes his celebrated wine, without the admixture of alcohol or spirits. This wine is found by careful analysis to be the best wine in market for invalids and debilitated persons. It is called Speer's Port Grape Wine, and is sold by Druggists. It is extensively used by the rich families in New York at their evening entertainments. Salesroom 24 Warren street, N. Y. Williams & Haywood, Agents, Raleigh, N. C.

Rescued, Restored, Revived.

It is marvellous how the rounded outlines of the form are restored, the pale and sallow cheek vivified with the ruddy hue of health; the muscular fibre braced and strengthened, the nervous system and the brain toned and invigorated, by the steady use of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphite of Lime and Soda. It is by far the most elegant and effective preparation in the whole catalogue of medicines, and in the disorders induced by scrofula, consumption chronic coughs, and the various forms of debility, it is a wonderful remedy. It is also certain of all its disagreeable properties, and as sweet and palatable as cream. 1 b 14 1w
